

ERNEST HEMINGWAY

- He was born in 1899.
- He was a writer and a journalist.
- His books often describe the adventures he had while he was travelling in the World.
- He won the Nobel Prize in 1954.
- His short novel “The old man and the sea” is the story of an old fisherman in Cuba. He wants to catch a marlin, an enormous fish. It’s about their epic struggle.
- He died in 1961.

TONI MORRISON

- She was born in 1931.
- She began her career when she was 40 years old.
- Before she was an English teacher at university.
- She has written 10 novels.
- Her most famous book “Beloved” is a historical novel and a ghost story. It has been a great success.
- She won the Nobel Prize in literature in 1993.
- She’s still live.

GREAT AMERICAN WRITERS

JEROME DAVID SALINGER

- He was born in 1919.
- He wrote “The catcher in the Rye”.
- It tells the story of a boy who is at a boarding school in Pennsylvania.
- He was a very private man and never gave interviews.
- He died in 2010.

HARPER LEE

- She was born in 1926.
- She wrote “To kill the Mockingbird”, it is an important book because it talks about prejudice between black and white people in the USA.
- She died in 2016.

